

Stepheni Norton Discusses FDA 21 CFR Part 11, in Regards to Compliance Training and Learning-Management-Systems Validation, on Episode 23 of the SyberWorks e-Learning Podcast Show

Waltham, Massachusetts – August 21, 2008

SyberWorks, Inc., a global leader in Learning Management System technology, today announces the next episode in their e-Learning Podcast Series: “Stepheni Norton Discusses FDA 21 CFR Part 11, in Regards to Compliance Training and Learning-Management-System Validation.”

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

“In today’s podcast, Stepheni Norton, Principal Consultant at 21 CFR Consulting LLC, discusses some of the common misconceptions surrounding FDA Regulation Title 21 CFR Part 11, as it relates to compliance training and learning-management-systems validation.”

Boggs continues, “The FDA’s Title 21 CFR Part 11 regulation sets down criteria under which a company that is required by the FDA to provide compliance training records may do so electronically, as opposed to via paper records. Many such firms are in bio-tech, life sciences, medical device manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, and other regulated industries.” Mary Kay Lofurno, Director of Marketing at SyberWorks, narrates the series.
