New SyberWorks Media Center Article - "How-to" Guide to Creating Online Tests

Waltham, Massachusetts – January 29, 2008

SyberWorks, Inc., a leader in custom e-Learning Solutions and the Learning Management System (LMS) industry, today announces an article available in the SyberWorks Online Media Center: "How-to" Guide to Creating Online Tests, by Dana Fine, Senior Instructional Designer at SyberWorks, Inc.

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

> "The article provides a thorough overview of how to create online tests. It covers topics such as how the main objective and parameters of the course impact a test, determining the level of difficulty for the test, safeguarding the test from cheating, and other concepts."

Boggs continues, "The article also discusses how to assess your online test and the implications of some common question types often used in online courses."

Dana Fine's article is located in the SyberWorks Online Media Center at http://www.syberworks.com/articles/online_tests.htm.
