

SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast #8: Interview with Andrew Merz, Senior Educational Services Manager for Cedar Point Communications, Inc.

Waltham, Massachusetts –May 30, 2007

SyberWorks, a leader in custom e-Learning Solutions and the Learning Management System industry, today announces the next episode in their LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast Series: “Interview with Andrew Merz, Senior Educational Services Manager for Cedar Point Communications, Inc.”

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

“In this edition of the SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast Series, Andrew Merz discusses their use of the SyberWorks Hosted LMS Solution to create and deliver customer and vendor support training. This podcast is a real-time example of how a company can scale their traditional instructor lead training to continue to meet the expanding needs of their customers and vendors all over the world.”

Boggs continues, “Andrew also talks about the process of converting traditional instructor lead training to web-based training and where they were able to incorporate other important elements of their product training into this new delivery vehicle.”
