SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast 21: Learning Management System Implementation Techniques

Waltham, Massachusetts – November 12, 2008

SyberWorks, Inc., a leader in custom e-Learning Solutions and the Learning Management System industry, today announces the next episode in their e-Learning Podcast Series: "LMS Implementation Tips."

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states,

> "Today's podcast is an interview with Steve Pena, Senior Implementation Consultant at SyberWorks, on the subject of LMS implementation. In this episode, Steve discusses highlights from an article he wrote on the subject, including his suggestions about online Help, reporting needs, catalog management, and more."

Boggs continues, "Implementing a learning management system is often a company-wide effort that requires enormous attention to detail. Steve's article also offers a lot of guidance about the nuts and bolts of LMS implementation, including naming conventions, user information standards, and software interfaces." Mary Kay Lofurno, Director of Marketing at SyberWorks, narrates the series.
