

SyberWorks LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast 23: Interview with Fran Schnack of Advanced BioHealing, Inc.

Waltham, Massachusetts – February 3, 2009

SyberWorks, Inc., a leader in the custom e-Learning Solutions and Learning Management System (LMS) industries, today announces the next episode in their LMS e-Learning Implementation Podcast Series: “Interview with Fran Schnack of Advanced Bio Healing, Inc.”

Dave Boggs, CEO of SyberWorks, states:

“This month’s episode examines how a medical manufacturing company tracks and manages compliance training for their medical manufacturing employees.”

“The interview discusses how they manage training in regards to FDA job training requirements and their SOP (standard operating procedure) processes through the 21 CFR Part 11-supported web-based SyberWorks Learning Management System. They also cover Advanced BioHealing's configuration of the SyberWorks web-based Learning Management System for 21 CFR Part 11 compliance, in regards to electronic signatures, audit trail reporting, password protection, and security with unique logins.” The series is narrated by Mary Kay Lofurno, Director of Marketing and GSA Contracts at SyberWorks.
